Governor's Report

Fred Johnson reported attending the Annual NCCC Meeting in St. Louis. Included in his report was that next year's dues will be due on November 1; a new NCCC club, Heartland Corvette Club, has formed in Manhattan; NCCC has information and "goodie bag" items are available for various functions from the NCCC; and April 27 is this year's scholarship deadline.

Old Business

A check for $100 was given to Air Cap Corvette Club for the Lake Afton All Car Show.

> The following slate of nominees was presented for 2013:

President – Kevin Brown

Vice President – Russell Kelly

Secretary – Bev Smiley

Activities Coordinators – Debby Gruver & Linda Ratzlaff

Governor – Fred Johnson

> Jim Gruver shared a short update of Vettes and Harleys at the Zoo. Due to the short hours available for show, it has been extended to a two day, The two day event will help draw vendors and spectators which will facilitate optimum fund raising.

New Business

Penny Stoss, creator of the NEW CKCA website presented a wonderful overview of the site. The site address is: www.centrankansascorvetteassociation.com.

The website is easily navigated using the following tabs:

- Contact us
- Members Info
- Upcoming Events & Calendar
- Past CKCA Events & Galleries
- More (which includes CKCA History, Tribute to Heroes and President's Blog)

Thank you Penny, you have done an amazing job creating the "Face" for our club. We are so proud!!!

A question was raised as do we want to find a GM sponsor for the CKCA. Possible opportunities might include:

- Show sponsorships
- Club parts discounts
- Sponsor could provide Corvette customers with CKCA information packet
- Service Clinics provided by Service Department

Due to the holidays the next meeting is scheduled for January 14, 2013

Motion to adjourn was made and seconded by Russell Kelly and John Denny.
